STANDING RULES FOR UNITED METHODIST WOMEN PACIFIC NORTHWEST CONFERENCE

GUIDELINES FOR THE STUDENT TRAVEL FUND

I. WHAT IS THE STUDENT TRAVEL FUND?

The Pacific Northwest Conference United Methodist Women believe that participation by high school and college student in service projects and/or leadership training events can clarify vocational choices, deepen personal faith, and help meet human need. Since many worthy youth could not participate in such events without financial assistance, the Youth Travel Fund, from which qualified student may receive help upon request, has been established.

Grants from the Student Travel Fund shall apply to events such as student meetings, conferences, work camps and service projects that are held outside the bounds of the Pacific Northwest Conference.

II. WHERE DO THE FUNDS COME FROM?

Funds for the Student Travel Fund come from local units of Pacific Northwest Conference United Methodist Women.

III. HOW DOES THE YOUTH TRAVEL FUND OPERATE?

The Student Travel Fund will help pay a portion of round trip travel and registration fees according to individual need and availability of funds as determined by the screening committee based on information supplied on the Student Travel Fund Application form.

The Student Travel Fund is designed to make it possible for students to attend events or participate in projects they would otherwise be unable to afford or would cause severe financial hardship. The manner and amount of each person's assistance from the Student Travel Fund is worked out individually by the Scholarship Committee. Priority will be given to applications from individual students.

IV. HOW AND WHERE TO APPLY

At the same time you send in an application to attend an out of Conference event, apply for scholarship help by completing the Student Travel Fund application form. The form is available through the Pacific Northwest UMW website or from the PNW UMW Scholarship Committee Chair.

V. PROCESS

1. Applications are distributed at the Youth Convocation, through the Coordinated Mailing and by the Conference Committee on Youth Ministries (CCOYM).
2. Applications are to be returned to the Scholarship Committee Chair marked ATTENTION: Student Travel Fund.
3. Decisions, including names and the amount of scholarship, are relayed to the CCOYM staff person for information and future planning.
4. The Student Travel Fund committee informs applicants; and the Conference UMW treasurer issues checks.
